Special bus arrangements planned for Centennial

This Committee would like to report that we have had problems in getting a special train to take our County residents to Ontario Place for our Centennial Day there on May 25.

The C.N.R. informed us the trip by train would take at least five hours to go from Haliburton to Toronto, which would be over 10 hours on the train and that would be just too much. Because of the train bed and the passenger service speeds would be limited to 25 miles per hour. So it is on by bus.

We have worked out a package price to Ontario Place and return including admission to the grounds at $6.00 per person. We will be making arrangements to have buses leave (and return) to various parts of the County. The coaches will leave at approximately 9 a.m. The County is hopeful that residents will take this opportunity to have a real family day at Ontario Place.

Auditions for talent wishing to appear that day will be held at the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School on April 28 and May 5 at 7:30 p.m. Phone Larry Perrott at 286-1760.

Fire department busy

The Haliburton Fire Department was really busy on Sunday afternoon.

At 4 p.m. they received a call that the house owned by Wayne Emmerson on the old Donald Road was on fire. The house was badly gutted and the fire was caused by over heated pipes.

At approximately the same time the local fire department were summoned to Haliburton Lake where a cottage owned by Mrs. Jessie Bevin of Toronto had been hit by lightning and was on fire. The cottage burned to the ground.

When a problem arises such as it did on Sunday it puts the fire department in a bad situation. When they are at one fire and they are called to another the only way that they can be contacted at the first fire is that a truck or car be sent to notify them. This causes unnecessary delays.

The only answer to this problem seems to be to equip the fire trucks with two-way radios.

The winners of the all-day event will receive the C. W. Hodgson Memorial Trophy in addition to individual trophies for each player. In music festival

Students place first

On Tuesday, April 2 students of the Lakeview School, Haliburton, travelled to Bancroft to participate in the North Hastings Music Festival.

Their musical presentation was entitled, "Two songs for a Better world", with arrangement by Mr. William Gliddon. The two songs were; "We Shall Overcome" and "It's a Small World."

Their fine effort was awarded a first prize and a mark of 80 and each student received an individual trophy. To add to the pleasure of the day, the class enjoyed a happy lunch hour at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Art Hewitt.

When the students returned to the Lakeview School, they had a very special surprise for their music director, Mr. Gliddon. They presented him with a hand hooked rug on which each of them had worked.

The design of the rug had a special significance for both the class and Mr. Gliddon, for a cross the deep yellow background, standing out clearly in black wool, was the musical notation of the last line of their festival song, "It's a Small World."

On weekend

There were a number of things that added up to make this past weekend a big one. Besides the usual number who always come back for this particular weekend, we had other things going for us.

The Lake Kashagawigamog Tourist Association had its pancake festival on the main street and what a success it was. Haliburton Lumber kicked off its giant inventory Adjustment Sale and Black's PRO Hardware had the official opening of its new furniture department.

Haliburton man charged with importing narcotics

"Incarceration is not doing me any good, it is making me very, very bitter," George Schell told provincial court officials at Lindsay on Monday.

Schell, formerly of Haliburton, was appearing in court on a bail hearing following his request after sureties of $60,000 put up by his parents were withdrawn by consent of an earlier request to this court.

Charges with importing narcotics, conspiracy to import narcotics and possession of narcotics for trafficking, Schell was told that the matter of fixing new bail terms was out of this court's hands. He was also told that unless he could obtain new sureties he would likely be held in custody until his trial date which was set for April 24.

He complained that his case had been subject to a series of crown remands covering one full year and said this new development had probably cost him his job as a government social services worker. Schell said he felt he was the victim of a miscarriage of justice - that he had had to start a whole new career, had been chastized in the county of Haliburton since charged and that the affair had cost him the trust of the woman with whom he had lived for the past five years.

Judge George Inrig said he was powerless to have anything to do with the matter because Schell had been a former law practice client.

Assistant Crown Attorney Jerry Woron told Schell the only procedure open to him was to get in touch with his counsel and see what further bail arrangements might be open to him.

Schell said he was brought to Lindsay jail early Friday morning and the only one he had seen was a justice of the peace for a remand. He told the court his father was very ill and this was a factor in the bail withdrawal.

Living for everyone

It seems to be the opinion of some that Haliburton County's Centennial Year is not getting off the ground. It is true that this statement might be true. But in our opinion we must examine some of the facts.

It's very easy to sit back and to criticize but the operation of a County Centennial is a big proposition, when you consider the size of the county and the fact that there are 365 days in the year and some people are of the opinion that an event should be going on each day of the year.

It is very unfair to think that the County Council or Chamber of Commerce can do it along and put on the events. This is an impossibility for them to do it all.

To make this centennial a real success it is going to take the efforts of all organizations, service clubs, municipalities etc. The real players in this game must be the citizens themselves. This is everyone's centennial and everyone in the county should get behind it. Not until this happens can we expect any quick results.

In conclusion what we are trying to say is don't wait for the County Council or Chamber of Commerce to do something get out and get your own organization interested in a centennial project or event. It's up to you.

Proud of NHL player

We here in Haliburton County should be mighty proud of Ron Stackhouse the only hockey player from the County to ever make the National Hockey League.

He was drafted from the Peterborough TPT Petes when the Oakland Seals an expansion team entered the N.H.L. Later on he was traded to the Detroit Red Wings and during this season Detroit traded him to the Pittsburgh Penguins.

In looking over the final scoring statistics of the NHL we noted that Ron ended up fifth in the points department for the Penguins. He played in 69 games having scored a total of six goals and had twenty-nine assists for a grand total of thirty-five points. Not bad for a defenceman.

We might also point out here that he led the entire Pittsburgh defence in points. A great season for a great guy.

Pittsburgh which missed the playoffs with just a mediocre season came on strong at the last and with their many young players in the line-up should put on a good showing come next season. Ron Stackhouse will be one of the players that they will be counting heavily on in their bid for a playoff position.

Haliburton Poetry

The Beginning of the end

By Richard Shaw

Yes, the beginning of the end, that is what I see,
God Bless the ones who cherished their family tree,
The words from your mouth, what do they say,
I just hope heart, feels the same way.

For this world is ready, Yes, ready for change,
And it is our life that we must rearrange,
The ones with the money, who think they own us all,
Jesus says, they are the ones who will surely fall,

But why does anyone, have to die,
Give up your worldly possessions and try,
The feeling has come, it has come to me,
To tell everyone, that they are free,
If I help you and you help me, just think how lovely things could be.

Many people are going, to come and live,
In our little place,
And there are going to be many things
We will have to face.

What is in store, for the next generation?
Are we trying to destroy, Gods own creation?
What are we teaching, our children today?
To go the right or the wrong way.

People keep saying, satan is back,
But to my way of thinking, men have put themselves, on the wrong track,
God gave women to men to cherish and love,
But somehow it has reversed, they push and they shove.

The children they have lost, all respect, for their mother and dad,
And when you stop and think, its really too bad,
Love is so sweet, If we'd just stop and see,
The way God has created us, all to be,
There is just one little thing, that I just have to say,
That I think of you all, whenever I pray.
Richard Shaw.

The Lumber Jack

By Theo Peacock

I'm old and bent and grizzled,
But I guess it is Nature's law
That I be like that after forty years
Of pulling cross-cut saw,
Of swinging a pick on the side-grade,
Of humping a thousand packs,
Of from hundreds of cords of wood
I've split with a six-pound tally axe.

Working from dawn till darkness,
Rolling the virgin pine
All day on the end of a cant-hook,
Or pulling a decking line.
Then back to the tar-papered bunkhouse,
Eating the coarsest of fare,
Then wearily into the blankets
Like a wounded beast to its lair.

Driving the logs in the springtime,
Thousands of logs from the hills,
Breaking the jakes on the river,
Each one the threat to kill,
The out on the lake on the wharfing crib,
Everything going fine
But with hands that were numb to the elbow
From coiling the wharfing line.

The foreman, striving to get more done,
Prodding the Working on;
Weaklings and slackers, he weeds them out,
All that he keeps is brawn.
And I've never met a foreman,
Neither have you, I'll bet,
But always things are going fine
As long as he smells your sweat!

As I said before, I am old and bent,
Crippled and wrinkled and gray;
My day in the lumber camp is o'er;
I'm too old to earn my pay.
Yet when St. Peter bides the door
To our bunks at the end of The Day,
I'll be right there with the rest of the boys...
I hope I'm not turned away.

Ox Narrons in Kushog Lake, Stanhope Township was named after two ox that walked into narrows from a winter road and drowned. This bridge was a winter project under the United Farmers Organization government of Ernie Drury in the early twenties. Joe Blairs' mill was moved to the back of the Hewitt farm in the early winter and Joe Beatty's gang took timber from surrounding lots to the mill, where Blairs used steam power to saw timber for the bridge. The men boarded at Hewitt's and horses hauled everything from the woods to the mill and then up Kushog to the narrows. This was not a relief system but a work project which was done during the coldest months of the year.

The bridge was built under the direction of John Snell and completed several years before the road. The highway was gradually build under several foremen including L E W Pritchard, Joe Beatty, Joe Hewitt and Charlie Snider. Thanks to John J. Hewitt of Minden for letting us use this photo.

BILL SMILEY

ITS MY SECOND TRIP IN 30 YEARS

Canadians, weary of winter, are taking advantage of the school winter break in ever-increasing numbers to get away from the true north, strong and freezing.

Colleagues casually mention that they're off to the Caribbean or Mexico or the Canary Islands or some such exotica. It's considered passe these days to go merely to Florida.

Students will be descending in throngs on places like Athens, Rome, Paris, London.

Chief reason is that air travel is no longer for the rich only. Package deals and charter flights put a mid-winter break within reach of us ordinary Joes.

A friend of mine, for example, is going with his wife for a week in the Channel Islands, those tiny bits between England and France. Air fare is only $209 each, return. And do you know what they're paying for a hotel room with bath, and three meals a day? Twenty-eight lousy pounds a week, because it's the off season. That is about 60 bucks. They couldn't stay home for much less.

Well, I'm not one for skulking off to the south and leaving other Canadians to suffer. I had a choice. I could go over to see Granddad, or fly to Germany for a few days. Free. It's not that I don't respect and admire my father-in-law, but for some reason I chose Germany.

I hope I get a better reception than I did last time I visited that country.

Last time I ventured into Germany was almost thirty years ago. There was a fairly large and assorted company in the group I travelled with: privates, corporals, sergeants and one Flying Officer — me.

We had no trouble getting into Germany, even though we had no passports. Perhaps it was because of the efficiency of our tour guides. There were eight of them, and they were extremely attentive. They would even accompany one when one had to relieve oneself.

The guides were tastefully arrayed in field-gray, and had similar accessories — guns.

I can't kick, however. I'll bet I was the only P.O.W. who rode across the German border on a bicycle. I couldn't walk because of a well-aimed kick on the kneecap, and they were sure as hell not going to carry me, so they let me ride one of their bikes.

I'll never forget the first place we stayed at, in Germany. It was my first taste of that old-world charm. It lacked a few of the amenities we spoiled North Americans are accustomed to, but it had a quaintness all its own. It was a barn. There was nobody there but us chickens, the cattle, and the tour guides.

At that, it was practically cosy after a couple of weeks living in a box-car, in Holland. It was a mite chilly, being November, but we paired off and curled up in the hay, like so many sets of spoons. I drew a big, ugly Canadian private from St. Catharines with a bullet wound in his neck which stank a bit. But he was warm.

One of our next stops was the delightful old city of Brunswick, where we spent an enchanting three hours in the air raid shelter, during a raid. It was worth it. The German equivalent of Red Cross ladies gave us coffee, ersatz but hot, the first hot drink we'd had for days.

Some other highlights of my visit were: the interrogation centre and "solitary" near Frankfurt; rolling on a train through a night attack on Leipzig, windows shattering, flares and bombs falling; a look from a train at the appalling rubble of Hamburg; hitch-hiking back from deep inside the Russian lines to Rostock; a visit to the concentration camp at Celle.

This visit couldn't be more interesting, but it should be more comfortable. I'm not going by bicycle, but by jet. And my kid brother, the Colonel, is over there. He didn't know enough to get out of the air force, and has nothing to look forward to but a big, fat pension any day now. But he'd better have the band out, the red carpet down, and the liebfraumilch laid on, or he's in deep trouble.

Along The Trails

Compiled by Roy Bates

Looking out at the dried grass in my yard and the mud in my driveway it is pretty obvious that snowmobiling is over for another season. Time to wrap up this column until next Fall.

I am sorry if you were dissatisfied last week. I couldn't seem to come up with anything worthwhile. Anyway, a typewriter was not available to me in St. Joseph's and I doubt that my editors would have been able to decipher my hand-written copy.

At this point I would like to extend my thanks to Doctor Christianson and Nurse Winter in Haliburton, and to Doctor Beamer, Sister Boyer, and all the lovely nurses who attended me in Peterborough where open surgery was done to pin together my busted ankle. Thanks also to the many visitors who helped keep me in good cheer particularly the two Legionaries from Kinmount who took time out from a busy District Convention. A very special thanks to the Pringles who supplied my transportation. To the delegation of HCSA Directors who visited prior to my hospitalization, with gifts and a lovely card, "Your thoughtfulness is truly appreciated." Thanks also to Ted Iles and the Haliburton Legion. And to the new friends I made among the other patients I wish a full and speedy recovery.

At a recent meeting of the HCSA it was resolved not to hold a Spring general meeting. The Directors feel that enthusiasm has waned to the point where too few people would bother to attend. This - though undoubtedly true - is unfortunate. While the Association lapses into a stagnating summer recess the Government will bring in its new restrictive legislation. Next Fall when we are faced with tighter controls the hollering will start. Let's hope it is not then too late to holler. I personally feel that the time is now when snowmobilers all over the Province should be making themselves heard, to their respective Members, to the Ministry of Natural Resources, the Ministry of Industry and Tourism, the Ministry of Transportation and Communications, even to the Premier himself, to insure that the new legislation is accompanied by a policy of providing snowmobile trails and adequate grooming. A policy that would put money into the hands of snowmobile clubs and associations who would attain the desired ends in the most economical manner.

Up to the present time there has been no real promise of Provincial assistance. There have been rumors, suggestions, and editorials in snowmobile publications demanding action, but so far as I can ascertain, no response at all from Government. Our delegation will attend the OFSC Convention at Niagara Falls later this month to learn what action that organization is taking. I am confident they will make a clear and fully responsible presentation. But it must be remembered that even that aggressive body represents only about 10% of the snowmobilers of Ontario. When the other 90% are willing to speak up loudly and in unison I can assure you Queen's Park will listen.

Where does the HCSA go from here? Should it spend the little money it has left to revise its somewhat obsolete map to further promote the region or should it sink every available dollar into trail improvement and grooming? I would favour the latter. However, the purchase of additional equipment would not make a lot of sense unless funds can be found to pay an operating crew for it. This season has proven that you cannot count on volunteer labour.

Whatever may happen during the Summer you can be sure the HCSA will still be around in the Fall. Whether it continues to bumble along with slow and painful progress or whether it goes to work with full determination will depend upon the degree of support it gets from the snowmobilers of the County. Let us hope that is One Hundred Percent.

The Good Lord willing, and the creeks do freeze, we'll be back in these pages next season. Have a good Summer.

News from Hall's Lake

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gartshore and Miss Margery Johnson have gone to spend Easter with relatives in London, Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jennings of "Sandy Lane Resort" have departed for a holiday at Daytone Beach and Fort Meyers in Florida.

Mr. Albert Hart played the organ at St. Stephen's Church for Palm Sunday and will also be our organist for Easter Sunday. The last time he played was in 1942 when the bombs were falling over London, England and he played the large organ in the polytechnic where troops were learning trades and went underground during the air raids. Mr. Hart is over 70 and a living example of how useful and important a part of community life a person can be. He played very well and everyone enjoyed singing the lovely hymns.

Gooderham News

The discussions about a volunteer fire department for the Township of Glamorgan has born fruit.

After investigating the suitability of various sites the committee recommended a site near the old railway right-of-way. This old road bed will serve as a good access road. There is now substantial activity at the site and the fire hall is being built.

At the beginning there was one delay due to freezing weather which interfered with the setting of the concrete, but progress should now be more rapid.

We are enjoying the benefit of last year's drainage and paving activities. The road in front of the post office has dried up quickly and the run-off has not been severe.

Previously, for many years, this area was a bog hole in the spring, with many cars being pulled out of the mud. The paving on the main street, however, has become quite rough, and undoubtedly will need some repair.

Forest Products Accident Prevention Association Meeting

Bancroft District Safety Association Meeting April 2nd, Ye Olde Barn Restaurant.

Present; Dr. H. Good, Haliburton, Dr. B. Hoyes, Haliburton, Mr. J. Farrow, Workmens Compensation Board. Eighteen Representatives of area logging, lumber, and Veneer firms. Note: All Doctors in the Haliburton - Bancroft area were invited.

Meeting was called to order by chairman Bruce Gibbs. The minutes of the January meeting were read, Moved by Floyd Tighe, seconded by Barry Martin that the minutes be adopted as read.

A letter from Mr. Beckley of North Hasting High school was read; thanking the Bancroft committee for their participation in the forest products day held in the high school.

Barry Martin gave a special thanks to Bruce Gibbs for his part in making the forest products day a success.

Bruce Gibbs reminded all members that membership fees are due and can be mailed to the secretary-treasurer P.O. Box 32 Harcourt, Ontario.

Mr. Farrow gave a brief description of the new benefits by the Workmens Compensation board to injured workmen or their dependents. Several individual problem cases were discussed with Mr. Farrow and he outlined the appeal procedure for both the employee and the employer.

The following points were noted in the subsequent discussion between the Doctors, Employers and the Workmens Compensation board.

(1) There exists an area of poor communication between Doctors and employers. This results in the fact that often the injured employee does not return to work as quickly as he might be able to, or take light duty work in the case of minor injuries.

(2) Employers pay one-hundred percent of the total compensation and medical costs in this province. Logging Firms pay all logging injuries, Veneer firms pay all veneer injuries etc. There are no subsidies from the Ontario Government. Employers, therefore, are interested in keeping their own injury costs down, as these costs usually represent from three to seven and a half percent of the employees gross wages.

(3) The Doctors present, thought it was a good idea to visit some of the local plants, so they could get an idea of the various jobs that partially disabled employees might handle.

(4) Discussion to change the light work phrase to suitable work.

(5) Brought to everyone's attention that an injury does not become compensable case until the employee has missed beyond one shift of work. As all companies are ratid according to compensation injuries it is important to try to accommodate injured workmen on suitable work where possible.

(6) Employers were reminded to send the pink slip with the injured employee to the doctor when they know that the case is definitely a Workmans compensation case.

After hearing general complaints from the Doctors and employers, of the red tape at the Toronto Workmans Compensation office, Mr. Farrow offered his North Bay Office as an avenue, for quick answers. Telephone (705) 472-5200.

The Bancroft Chamber of Commerce has solved their plans for the loggers' weekend until next winter. It was decided to leave further plans for this event until more companies were represented at the meetings.

Haliburton Chamber of Commerce have invited the Association to put on a display for Haliburton Centennial Day at Ontario Place. Motioned by Tom Coghlan, seconded by Bill McKenzie that the Bancroft committee participate pending ratification from the Chamber of Commerce.

On behalf of the Bancroft Committee, Mr. Bruce Gibbs thanked our guests for the information and attending the meeting.

Next meeting will be Tuesday May 7, at 7:30 p.m. in the Olde Barn Restaurant Bancroft Ontario.

Moved by Chuck Lindsay, seconded by Barry Martin that meeting adjourn.

The Honda MT-125 Elsinore Enduro Two Stroke. Look closely and you'll see a racing bike.

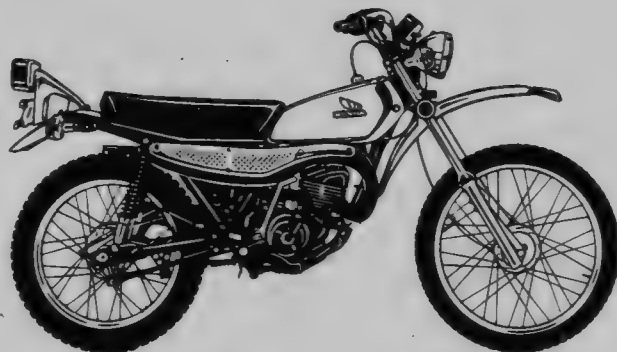

The MT125 is based on the competition-only CR125M.

It has a responsive two-stroke engine. But with the Honda Positive Injection System for oiling.

It has CR-type handlebars and grips, CR-type frame geometry. So you can expect CR-type handling. With a quick turn throttle, flexible plastic fenders and serrated steel footpegs and brake pedal, MT125 is built for dirt riding.

With full instrumentation, full lighting and a quiet enduro-style muffler, it's 100% street legal.

Take it down the road to the dirt. You'll find it's 100% ready.

TURNPIKE WIDE-TRACK
2 + 2 Glass-Belted Polyester

A Glass-Belted tire that's extra wide and deep-treaded like the 4 + 2 Belt-O-Glass above, but with 2 body plies of Polyester and 2 "Second Generation" improved Glass Belts, as on tires installed on today's new cars.

5-Year Road-Hazard Insured: 36-Month, 36% Pro-rated Wear-Out Discount Allowance

POLYFLEX—
2 + 2 Polyester-Belted Nylon

Another belted tire, this one built with two body plies of Dupont 66 #1260-denier Nylon cord (50% stronger than ordinary 4-ply #840-denier Nylon cord). These body-plyies are belted with 2 plies of Polyester instead of glass. The phenomenal result: a belted tire that rides softer than the rest and that costs less too. The saving is passed along in the remarkably low prices shown here.

5-Year Road-Hazard Insured: 30-Month, 30% Pro-rated Wear-Out Discount Allowance

RADIALS

Save as much as $100.00 on a set of 4!

"Radial tires are great," say many of our customers, but the price is almost twice that of Glass-Belts, and the cost per mile slightly higher. Fans rave, however, about their stability and sure-footedness. Chances are you'll love them too. But Canadian Tire invites you to TRY BEFORE YOU BUY. If Radials don't suit you, return with invoice within 10 days, for a full refund. (New valves, service, not included).

No charge for tire installation when you buy our Dill or Schrader valve at our regular catalogue price of $1.00. We must install tire and valve together. "A tire isn't new unless the valve is too!" Static-Balance, tire and wheel, $1.00. Dynamic Balance, $2.50. *5% Discount for Cash is in lieu of Bonus Coupons

Gems of Truth

JESUS THE MIGHTY CONQUEROR

The pyramids of Egypt are a striking monument to the dead Pharaohs of bygone days. Even the tomb of Mohammed can be visited and the enshrined body viewed. In Rome, the great Basilica of St. Peters, the world is reminded that the popes of yesterday are dead.

The validity of Christianity however rests upon the reality that Jesus our Lord is alive! This is the central message in the life of the early Church and is still the truth of God's Word for our day. Two events heralded the birth of the early Church, the resurrection of the Lord Jesus and the coming of the Holy Spirit to indwell believers. When Jesus was asked for a demonstration of the authority of His message He spoke of His resurrection. John 2:18-21. This was the first release of such information concerning the purpose of His death on Calvary. The resurrection testified that Jehovah God was satisfied with the penalty for sin when the Son allowed sin to be laid on Him on behalf of sinners.

Satan surely must have thought that Calvary was his finest hour. But God had planned it to be the crushing of the serpent's head as foretold in Gen. 3:15. How do we know that God was satisfied with Christ's death as full payment for the sins of the world? Peter tells it by saying that it was demonstrated by raising His Son from the dead. 1 Peter 1:18-21.

The resurrection not only proved that God was satisfied by the death payment of the Son but it also proved that Jesus is none other than God the Son. His own power was revealed in this act of rising from the dead. Romans 1:4.

This is a striking fact, because one of the alleged reasons for demanding the crucifixion to Pilate was that "He made Himself out to be the Son of God". John 19:7 also John 5:17-24. His accusers knew perfectly that Jesus was saying about Himself.

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION: Acts 5:30-32 "The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. Him hath God exalted with His right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are His witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Spirit, whom God hath given to them that obey Him".

FOOD FOR THOUGHT: No one who knows Jesus personally questions the resurrection

Eagle Lake Community Church

Special Dedication Service

On Easter Sunday morning, a special dedication service was held in Eagle Lake Community Church. The Easter message was brought to the congregation by Rev. John Smith, and special music was presented by the junior choir, and Mrs. Margaret Fielding.

During the last two years, this little community church has undergone many changes, inside and out. Through the years, it has been an inspiration and a stabilizing force to the community, and it is the hope of all, that it will continue to serve its people for many years to come.

A new organ has been installed, and was dedicated to the memory of men and women, who gave their lives in the world wars.

One of the members of the church, Mrs. Marie Wallace, had a dream of an ecclesiastical stichery for the front of the church, and the beautiful panel is the result of that dream.

Many of the ladies of the community worked on this panel, and with much love, it was dedicated, Sunday, April 14, 1974, to the memory of Mrs. Beatrice Barry, Mrs. Ann Buchanan, and Mrs. Leana Upton, all long-time residents of Eagle Lake, and active in the work of Eagle Lake Community Church.

In Memoriam

BARNHART - In loving memory of a dear Husband and Father, Melvin Barnhart, who passed away April 17, 1968.

When days are dark and lonely, And everything goes wrong, We seem to hear you whisper, "Cheer up and carry on". Each time we look at your picture, You seem to smile and say, "Don't grieve, I'm only sleeping, We'll meet again someday". Lovingly remembered by Wife Vera and Family.
